2015 Week of Giving Toy Collection 12/7-11
December Dollar Dress Down Day 12/11

Each month NJHS selects a charitable organization to support through a collection.
This month we are collecting toys for the Boca Raton Police Community Outreach and The Children’s Healing Institute - representatives will be here 12/11 to share their appreciation.

The Dollar Dress Down Funds will sponsor Family Holidays for those less fortunate.

NJHS will host the ANNUAL WEEK OF GIVING 12/7-11. We are supporting Boca Raton Police Community Outreach and The Children’s Healing Institute. Your support can help make this a Happy Holiday for someone less fortunate.

We will also sponsor a Dollar Dress Down on Friday, 12/11. Simply send a dollar and the form below to school to participate. Please complete the form below (print clearly), send the form and $1.00 to your child’s homeroom no later than Wednesday, December 9th, and your child will receive a wrist band to dress in casual clothing* Friday, December 11th in support of those less fortunate.

If your child brings a dollar to school and the form below, then he/she will be able to dress in casual clothing (out of uniform), or an outfit* that complies with the school dress code. We are no longer able to accept dollars in the circle. Please know the NJHS organization genuinely appreciates your ongoing support. However, if we are to continue this charitable collection, then students must comply with the school’s dress code expectations on presentation. *Consequently, students that do not comply with the dress code will be refunded their contribution and required to wear their uniform. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Sands (rsands@fau.edu).

Just a gentle dress code reminder*:
- Casual clothing and jeans may NOT have rips, tears or tattered edges.
- Shoes must be appropriate and close-toed - No sandals, flip flops or open-toed shoes
- Clothing must be appropriately sized - No leggings, jeggings, spandex, or skin-tight/baggy clothing
- No open back shirts/dresses or straps on clothing less than three fingers wide
- All wording on shirts should be appropriate
