Guidelines for Community Member Recommendation
For membership in National Honor Society
FAU High School

As part of the application process of the FAU High Chapter of the National Honor Society, all applicants must have a letter of recommendation written by a community member. The required letter of recommendation should be from a community member of good standing who has known you for at least one year. If you are a newcomer to the district, please make sure that the letter of recommendation from your previous district includes appropriate contact numbers. It is preferable that the letter is typed. The letter must mention, but not be limited to, the following:

1. Relationship – example: a religious leader or an employer (The author of the letter may not be a relative and must be an adult) and the amount of time the referring writer has known the applicant.
2. Comment on the character of the applicant. Consideration must be given to reliability, honesty and trustworthiness.
4. Any other knowledge of the applicant that the reference believes would be helpful in determining the applicant’s appropriateness for induction into the National Honor Society.
