

Endorsement

PAEC Professional Learning Center Summary of Updated Components to Professional Learning Catalog

Professional Development Catalog changed to Professional Learning Catalog and updated throughout document. Professional Development Center changed to Professional Learning Center and updated throughout document. Changed wording: 6. Specific Learner Outcomes #1 and 2: current research to evidence-based research. Changed wording: 7. Learning Procedures #1: removed word lectures. 239 Replaced in 2. Description, REL with Florida Center for Reading Research 255 Replaced sentence 4 in number 2. Description with the following: This curse will allow educators to develop, increase and demonstrate knowledge of evidence-based research strategies that support the science of reading as well as the integration of multi-sensory strategies to meet the needs of students, including those with disabilities or other diverse learning needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Inserted the following sentences under 2. Description: Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. In 2. Description, in the following sentence changed, the word appropriate to effectively: Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND ENGAGEMENT Under LINK(s) TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific instructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will needs on with provides and	2024-2025
throughout document. Professional Development Center changed to Professional Learning Center and updated throughout document. Changed wording: 6. Specific Learner Outcomes #1 and 2: current research to evidence-based research. Changed wording: 7. Learning Procedures #1: removed word lectures. 239 Replaced in 2. Description, REL with Florida Center for Reading Research 255 Replaced sentence 4 in number 2. Description with the following: This course will allow educators to develop, increase and demonstrate knowledge of evidence-based research strategies that support the science of reading as well as the integration of multi-sensory strategies to meet the needs of students, including those with disabilities or other diverse learning needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Inserted the following sentences under 2. Description: Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. In 2. Description, in the following sentence changed, the word appropriate to effectively: Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND 307 ENGAGEMENT In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Descriptio	mponents Updated to High Quality Format throughout document. Changed wording: 6. Specific Learner Outcomes #1 and 2: current research to evidence-based research. Changed wording: 7. Learning Procedures #1: removed word lectures. 239 Replaced in 2. Description, REL with Florida Center for Reading Research 255 Replaced sentence 4 in number 2. Description with the following: This course will allow educators to develop, increase and demonstrate knowledge of evidence-based research strategies that support the science of reading as well as the integration of multi-sensory strategies to meet the needs of students, including those with disabilities or other diverse learning needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Inserted the following sentences under 2. Description: Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. In 2. Description, in the following sentence changed, the word appropriate to effectively: Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND 307 ENGAGEMENT Under LINK(s) TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific 353 instructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed	Professional Development Catalog changed to Professional Learning Catalog and updated throughout document.	1
Changed wording: 7. Learning Procedures #1: removed word lectures. Changed wording: 7. Learning Procedures #1: removed word lectures. 239 Replaced in 2. Description, REL with Florida Center for Reading Research 255 Replaced sentence 4 in number 2. Description with the following: This course will allow educators to develop, increase and demonstrate knowledge of evidence-based research strategies that support the science of reading as well as the integration of multi-sensory strategies to meet the needs of students, including those with disabilities or other diverse learning needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Inserted the following sentences under 2. Description: Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. In 2. Description, in the following sentence changed, the word appropriate to effectively: 288 & 2 Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND STOKAGEMENT Under LINK(s) TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific instructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed the sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instr	Professional Development Center changed to Professional Learning Center and updated throughout document.	5
Replaced in 2. Description, REL with Florida Center for Reading Research Replaced sentence 4 in number 2. Description with the following: This course will allow educators to develop, increase and demonstrate knowledge of evidence-based research strategies that support the science of reading as well as the integration of multi-sensory strategies to meet the needs of students, including those with disabilities or other diverse learning needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Inserted the following sentences under 2. Description: Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. In 2. Description, in the following sentence changed, the word appropriate to effectively: 288 & 2 Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific sinstructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed the sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instructional materials to improve the instructional pr	Changed wording: 6. Specific Learner Outcomes #1 and 2: current research to evidence-based research.	239
Replaced sentence 4 in number 2. Description with the following: This course will allow educators to develop, increase and demonstrate knowledge of evidence-based research strategies that support the science of reading as well as the integration of multi-sensory strategies to meet the needs of students, including those with disabilities or other diverse learning needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Inserted the following sentences under 2. Description: Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. In 2. Description, in the following sentence changed, the word appropriate to effectively: Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND 307 ENGAGEMENT Under LINK(s) TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific 353 instructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, in the following sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports t	Changed wording: 7. Learning Procedures #1: removed word lectures.	239 educators to develop, increase and demonstrate knowledge of evidence-based research strategies that support the science of reading as well as the integration of multi-sensory strategies to meet the needs of students, including those with disabilities or other diverse learning needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Inserted the following sentences under 2. Description: Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. In 2. Description, in the following sentence changed, the word appropriate to effectively: Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND ENGAGEMENT Under LINK(s) TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific 353 instructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed the sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional at echniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will u	Replaced in 2. Description, REL with Florida Center for Reading Research	255
incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. In 2. Description, in the following sentence changed, the word appropriate to effectively: Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND ENGAGEMENT Under LINK(s) TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific 353 instructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed the sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Updated link 2. Description to Resiliency Florida: Accessed from https://	Replaced sentence 4 in number 2. Description with the following: This course will allow educators to develop, increase and demonstrate knowledge of evidence-based research strategies that support the science of reading as well as the integration of multi-sensory strategies to meet the needs of students, including those with disabilities or other diverse learning needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia.	267
Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved Florida academic content standards for science. Total changed to: STUDENT AND INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT: STUDENT MOTIVATION AND ENGAGEMENT Under LINK(s) TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific ainstructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed the sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Updated link 2. Description to Resiliency Florida: Accessed from https:// Mass https://www.buildresiliency.org/.	incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs	270
Under LINK(s) TO PRIORITY INITIATIVES: added a check to Mastery of a specific instructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered System of Support In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed the sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Updated link 2. Description to Resiliency Florida: Accessed from https://www.buildresiliency.org/.	Educators will develop content knowledge necessary to effectively teach approved	288 & 292
In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed the sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Updated link 2. Description to Resiliency Florida: Accessed from https:// https://www.buildresiliency.org/.		307
In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that is aligned with Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards: English Language Arts. In 2. Description, removed the sentence: They may also review and learn to use new instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Updated link 2. Description to Resiliency Florida: Accessed from https:// www.buildresiliency.org/.	instructional practice and Mastery of a specific leadership practice, and Multi-tiered	353
instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with disabilities or other diverse needs including students with characteristics of dyslexia. Updated link 2. Description to Resiliency Florida: Accessed from https:// https://www.buildresiliency.org/.	In 2. Description, in the following sentence replaced research-based instructional with evidence-based instructional strategies: Educators will research, examine, and implement evidence-based instructional strategies in the area of writing instruction that	380
https://www.buildresiliency.org/.	instructional materials to improve the instructional process and replaced with Participants will also learn how to incorporate instructional techniques and strategies based on evidence-based research that supports the science of reading into the general and/or special education setting. Teachers will understand why and when multi-sensory strategies should be used to meet the specific needs of students including those with	380
Florida Gifted – replaced with updated information 546-58		383
	Florida Gifted – replaced with updated information	546-584

585-717

Reading Endorsement – replaced 2019 Reading Endorsement with 2022 Reading